

I strongly support diversity of opinion in dissemination of news to the American public and oppose conglomerate ownership of news corporations that may infringe upon this American right as stated in our Bill of Rights.